

Jean May (Cairns) Bradley

Jean May (Cairns) Bradley

AGE: 98 • Buckingham, PA

Jean May (Cairns) Bradley, of Buckingham, died Thursday, February 21, 2013 at her home. She was 98. Jean was born in Scranton, PA and lived there until entering The Roosevelt Hospital School of Nursing in New York City in 1933, from where she received a degree as a Registered Nurse. She joined the staff of the Henry Street Visiting Nurse Association where she worked for four years. During WWII Jean worked for one year at Mountainside Hospital in Glen Ridge, NJ while her husband was in the service. In the 1960's she was a staff nurse at Morristown Memorial Hospital. Jean and her late husband, John E., who was a well-known artist in New Jersey, spent their early-married years in Glen Ridge, NJ and Bloomfield, NJ. They moved to Mt. Kemble Lake, Morristown, NJ and lived there for 50 years. In 2003 they moved to Doylestown to live with their daughters.

Mrs. Bradley is survived by a son, William C. Bradley, of Pt. Pleasant, NJ; a daughter, Suzanne B. Hoeffner, of Buckingham Twp.; seven grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren. Jean was preceded in death by a daughter, Nancy J. Wasson, in 2009.

A private family remembrance will be held at a later date. Reed and Steinbach Funeral Home, Doylestown, PA.
